All General Meetings, other than Annual General Meetings, shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

14. The Council may whenever they think fit convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, specifying the nature of the business to be conducted thereat. 15. Twenty-one days' notice in writing at the least of every Annual General Meeting and of every meeting convened to pass a Special Resolution and fourteen days' notice in writing at the least of every other General Meeting (exclusive in every case both of the day and which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given), specifying the place, the day and the hour of the meeting, and in the case of special business the general nature of that business shall be given in the manner hereinafter mentioned to such persons (including the Auditors) as are under these presents or under the Act entitled to receive such notice from the Trust, but with the consent of all the Members having the right to attend and vote thereat, or of such proportion of them as is prescribed by the Act in the case of meetings other than Annual General Meetings, a meeting may be convened by such notice as those members think fit.

16. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to send any voting or other ballot paper or other document to, or the non-receipt of such notice, voting or ballot paper or other document by, any person entitled to receive notice, voting or ballot paper or other document, shall not invalidate any resolution passed, or proceeding had, at any meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

17. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall also be deemed special, with the exception of the consideration of the income and expenditure account and balance sheet, and the reports of the Council and of the Auditors, the election of members of the Council in the place of those retiring, and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the Auditors.

18. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise

Whenever a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, the members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment, or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

22. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

23. Subject as hereinafter provided, if a poll be demanded in the manner aforesaid, it shall be taken at such time and place, and in such manner, as the Chairman of the meeting shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

24. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a Chairman of a meeting, or on any question of adjournment.

25. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the Meeting shall be entitled to a second casting vote.

26. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

27. Subject to Article 7 above and as hereinafter provided, every member shall have one vote. A Corporate Member shall have one vote which shall be exercisable by its representative.

No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution.

32. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, provided that no intimation in writing of the death, insanity or revocation as aforesaid shall have been received at the registered office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

Any member so appointed shall retain his office only until the following Annual General Meeting. Any member so appointed shall be eligible for re-election.

Provided always that a person may be appointed a Council Member at any age and a Council Member may continue in office after attaining any age and shall not be required to retire upon attaining the age of eighty-five as aforesaid, if his appointment or continuance as a Council Member is approved by the Trust in General Meeting and special notice has been given of the resolution appointing him or approving his appointment and such notice to the Trust and by the Trust to its members has stated the age of the person to whom it applies.
